10 top tips to being a good Young Leader

If you have nothing to do – supervise younger members and help to motivate them

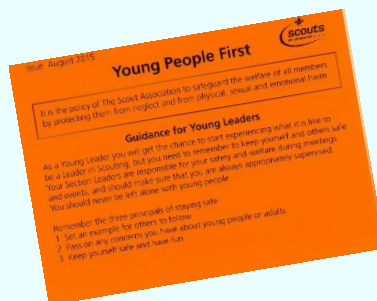

If you can't attend a meeting, let the leader in charge know well in advance – they may be relying on you!

Tidy up as you go through the activity and stay until the hall is tidy at the end – you are one of the leaders!

Be positive and act as someone that the younger members can look up to Remember and follow your Orange Card at all times.

Avoid physical contact with the younger members – you are bigger and stronger than them and they could easily be hurt

Don't be seen eating sweets or drinks when others don't have them
